

EFC MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION FORM

The principal objective of the EFC is to contribute to the general advancement of the science of corrosion and the protection of materials by promoting cooperation in Europe between scientific and technical societies and organizations and by collaboration with similar scientific and technical societies and organisations throughout the world. Subject to the approval of the EFC Board of Administrators and the EFC General Assembly, full membership of the EFC is available to organisations that are not-for-profit and support the above objective, in the following categories:

- 1) European Membership is available within the full member states of the Council of Europe;
- 2) International Membership is available in all other countries (subject to the support of three European Member Societies in good standing).

EFC Member Societies qualify for a number of important benefits, which include the following:

- Participation by their members in EFC Working Parties as of right;
- Reduced registration fees for their members at the EFC annual EUROCORR Conference;
- Discounted prices to their members on all EFC publications;
- Access by their members to the restricted area of the EFC Website containing EFC Working Party minutes and the electronic proceedings of past EUROCORR Conferences;
- Participation in the EFC General Assembly (with voting rights);
- Opportunities to nominate individuals for the EFC Awards and for election to the EFC Board of Administrators;
- Availability of Affiliate Membership of the World Corrosion Organisation (WCO) at no additional cost subject to the approval of the WCO Board of Administrators and the WCO General Assembly.

In addition, European Member Societies may submit bids to host the EUROCORR Conference.

The membership fee 2018 is EUR 1,690 + VAT. A reduced membership fee (50% off) will be offered during the first two years of membership. If you would like to apply on behalf of your society to join the EFC as either a European Member Society or an International Member Society, please complete the form and submit it to one of the three offices of the EFC General Secretariat given below.
